

Class 14, Homework Assignment

Final project (10 points). Pick a topic you are interested in and work on it using the programming skills you learned in this course. You can use real-world data or simulated data. Try to combine multiple programming elements (e.g. loops, if else statement, operators, build-in functions) to achieve this goal. Make your code a customized function and re-use it. Make graphs to show your results.